WEDDINGS AND TENNIS

The Former Are All Much Alike in Settings.

NAMES THE MAIN THING

A Dance on Board the Grim War Monitor, the Battleship Illinois, Draw Deeply on Society Ranks—Entertainments of the Week.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 12.—Weddings and tennis have occupied the hands and hearts of those who compose the social sets here this week. Those who did not get married or who were not interested in the marriage of friends were interested in the courts or the accounts of the tennis games. There was something for everybody to find interest in, as there always is in the liveliest and most cosmopolitan city in the State. The weddings were absorbing. They may not be of great interest elsewhere, because with a change of names and of ministers, one wedding is much like another wedding. The same adjectives are applied to every case by the society reporters, whether the color scheme is white and green or blue and red. The latter combination may not be used too frequently, but the adjectives would be the same in either case. The names of the happy persons are the essential things; decorations and refreshments are details which do not vary more than the gowns of the brides do. Given the names, therefore, and every one who reads of the average marriage can imagine the setting. Despite that, weddings are always absorbing, as they should be, because they unite two lives of loving creatures, on whom the divine blessing has been bestowed. There have not been many weddings this month, but there are hundreds in prospect, and nobody is alarmed for the future, though some of the young men are nervously awaiting decisions which they tried and failed to get during the winter. Visitors were plentiful here this week, but great events, except the tennis games, were few.

BATHING AT OLD POINT

Dance on Board the Prairie the Event of the Week.

Fishing Parties.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., June 11. June at Old Point is one of the most attractive seasons of the year and the ideal weather of the past few weeks has been no exception to the rule. The bathing season has opened and everyone who does not go in goes out on the board walk and pavilion to watch the bathers.

Five o'clock in the afternoon is the fashionable bathing hour and almost every one who goes in goes at that time. Baiting has become very popular since the warm weather set in and the fine weather has been taken advantage of for sailing and fishing parties.

A very charming event of the week was the dance on board the U. S. S. Prairie, on Tuesday afternoon, which was given by Lieutenant John M. Elliott for Miss Florence Elliott, of Pennsylvania, a sister of Lieutenant Orio S. Knepper.

Mrs. Francis W. Brown received with Miss Knepper and some of those invited were Miss Edith Harmon, Mrs. C. Davis, Miss Blossom Barry, Miss Ruth Cummins, Mrs. Morrell Mills, and Lieutenants Edward Hill, Richard Hill, Robert F. McMillan, of Portsmouth; Miss Jane Hawley, of New York; Miss Ethel MacMurray, of Rye, N. Y.; Miss Tiggart, of Virginia; and the ward-room officers of the Prairie and Nevada.

The German corvette Gazelle, which was anchored in Hampton Roads for a week, has sailed to join the German South Atlantic squadron. While here Captain Robert F. McMillan, of the Gazelle, was a guest at the Chamberlain.

Lieutenant Orio S. Knepper's guests at dinner aboard the Prairie on Monday evening were Mrs. Francis W. Brown, Miss Knepper, Mrs. Charles Brown, Miss Day Brown and Miss Jane Hawley, of New York.

General and Mrs. Edgar Allan have returned to the Chamberlain from a visit to Washington.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do any good but I have found the light shining at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel like a new man now. I hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."
